

Pacing Guide for Sports History 2016-2017 by Mark J. Sosnowski

Sports History is a one semester elective class. This pacing guide would be reflective as if the course were taught beginning in September.

Months	SEPTEMBER				OCTOBER				NOVEMBER				DECEMBER				JANUARY				FEBRUARY				MARCH				APRIL				MAY				JUNE
Week #	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31	32	33	34	35	36	37	38
1 & 2	Introduction to the course: Why do we love sports? Unit 1: The Business of Sports and Corruption of Sports. Study how the modern business of sports emerged.				Unit 2: The African American Experience with Sports. Study the historical experience of the black athlete from the Civil War to the present.				Unit 3: The Female Experience with Sports. Study the historical experience of women with sports spanning from the late 1800s to the present.				Unit 4: The High School Sports Experience. Study the historical experience of high school students. Read the book Our Boys.				Unit 5: The Joy of Sports. Students will explore various examples of sports bringing Americans together. Students will complete take-home exam pertaining course ideas.
3 & 4	Study many historical examples of corruption in sports. At the conclusion of the unit, complete unit test.				Continue work on the historical experience of the black athlete. At the conclusion of the unit, students will complete a unit test.				Continue work on the historical experience of the female athlete. Complete a unit test prior to the holiday break.				Wrap up reading the book Our Boys. Students will write a paper reflecting on the book.				N/A																					